

Global Real Estate Insider Podcast

10 questions, including your additional points:

PLEASE introduce yourself and tell us a bit about your agency and the areas you specialize. What makes your agency stand out?

Tell us some more about you – how did you get into real estate?

What is the current property market like in [Country/Region], and can you share a bit about its history? How has it evolved over the years?

Which areas are foreign buyers most attracted to, and why do these locations stand out compared to others?

What types of properties are most in demand in your region, and what trends are you seeing in the market right now?

For someone interested in purchasing a second home or investment property, what are the most important factors they should consider before making a decision?

What is the process like for a foreign buyer purchasing property in your country? Are there any common challenges or legal requirements they should be aware of?

What neighborhoods or areas would you recommend to someone looking for a long-term investment versus someone interested in a vacation home?

Are there any emerging markets or lesser-known areas in your region that you think buyers should keep an eye on?

How do local property taxes, maintenance costs, and other expenses typically compare to those in other countries? What should buyers budget for beyond the property purchase?

For listeners considering investing in [Country/Region], what's your best piece of advice for making the most out of their property investment?